EXHIBIT INFORMATION

Now in its 27th year, the TMS Annual Meeting Exhibit is one of the top global showcases for the latest in products and services designed specifically for the markets.

What is the TMS Annual Meeting & Exhibition?

- It's over 4,300 industry leaders from more than 68 countries: Representatives from the top suppliers to the metals industry join specialists in materials testing and characterization to create a dynamic show floor unlike any other in the world.
- It's ore and more: TMS 2013 will draw an extensive aluminum technical audience and will spotlight the latest developments in the emerging materials and materials characterization areas.
- It's a closer look: Nearly one-third of the symposia held at TMS 2013 will deal with topics related to advanced characterization, testing, and modeling materials.
- It's the latest knowledge: Book, journal, and database publishers participate in the TMS Annual Meeting to reach materials scientists and engineers, metallurgists, university instructors, and consultants who are searching for the most up-to-date knowledge in their fields.

Why Should I Exhibit?

Attendees want to see the latest developments in products and services.

Network with attendees in session rooms and during session breaks! With some 3,700 presentations planned, you'll have plenty of opportunity to find related technology and introduce yourself to researchers looking for products.

A great location! The Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center located in San Antonio located near the Alamo and River Walk.
