

BOOKS AND PROCEEDINGS POLICIES
TMS Content Development and Dissemination Committee

PROCEDURE FOR ADDRESSING PLAGIARISM CLAIMS

Claims of plagiarism will be addressed immediately by the editor of the proceedings volume in which the article has appeared. The editor will engage involved parties in discussion of the matter and attempt to reach an amicable solution between the involved authors. In the event that negotiation among the editor of the publication and the involved parties cannot resolve the matter, the Chair of the Content Development and Dissemination Committee will approach three uninvolved individuals who are knowledgeable in the technology for anonymous and impartial determination of each case. The consensus reached by these individuals will represent the position of the Society.

PROCEDURE FOR COMPLIMENTARY COPIES

Editor/Author Guidelines:

It is the policy of TMS that each editor who is named and included on the cover/title page of the book is entitled to one complimentary copy of his/her proceedings book. Complimentary copies are not provided to authors.
