Oglebayfest October 2 - 4

Oglebayfest, a park-wide festival, celebrates its 32nd Anniversary this year on October 2-4. Begun as a "thanks" to the public for its continued support, the event has grown from one to 2 1/2 days, attracting upwards of 100,000 people. A juried Artists' Market opens on Friday afternoon in the Mansion woods as does Oglebay's

Gourmet Market featuring fall's bounty. Guests can dance the night away in Wilson Lodge on Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoon. A parade opens the festivities on Saturday and a free firework display climaxes the day. And above all, sample all the food. It's the best weekend of the entire year! Don't miss it.

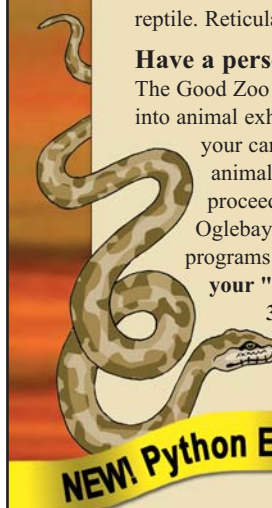

Python, Animal Encounters and Lorikeet Landing at the Good Zoo!

NEW! Reticulated Python at the zoo.

This 18 foot long female reticulated python is making the Good Zoo her new permanent residence. Come meet this amazing reptile. Reticulated pythons are found in southeast Asia, Vietnam, Burma, Indonesia and Malaysia.

Have a personal encounter with some of the animals from the Good Zoo!

The Good Zoo at Oglebay is offering new "Animal Encounter" programs that allow zoo guests to get into animal exhibits with the keepers to help feed and train some of the zoo's animals! You must bring your cameras for this incredible experience! Up to one session per animal per day will be available Thursdays - Sundays. A portion of the proceeds from the "Animal Encounters" program will support Oglebay's Good Zoo's conservation programs. NEW "Meet The Keeper" programs that are suitable for children from ages 2 and up. To schedule your "Animal Encounter" or "Meet the Keeper" tour, please call 304-243-4100.
