

TMS 2010

139th Annual Meeting & Exhibition

February 14 - 18, 2010, Washington State Convention Center, Seattle, Washington USA

The Aluminium Industry – Perspectives on our Future

TMS Aluminum Plenary Session

Monday, February 15 • 8:30 a.m. to noon

Washington State Convention Center, Ballroom 6C

Introduction

Geoff Bearne, Chairperson - TMS Aluminium Committee

The Challenges that Aluminium Faces as Material of Choice

Dr. Frank Field, Senior Research Associate, MIT

The Strategic Impact of Changing Energy Markets on the Aluminum Industry

Dr. Kelly Driscoll, Principal Consultant, CRU

The Impact of Economic Highs and Lows on Aluminium Smelter Construction

César Inostroza, Vice President and General Manager Aluminum Division, SNC-Lavalin

Challenges and Opportunities Relative to Increased Usage of Aluminum within the Automotive Industry

Mark Verbrugge, Director, Chemical Sciences and Materials Systems Lab - General Motors Research & Development Center

Aluminum's Sustainability Strategy

Steve Williamson, Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Technical Service, ARCO

Aluminum Recycling in a Carbon-Constrained World: Observations and Opportunities

Dr. Subodh Das, CEO, Phinix

Wrap Up and Introduction to Aluminium Conference

John Johnson, Vice Chairperson of TMS Aluminum Committee and Editor of TMS Light Metals 2010

For complete technical program information, and registration/housing details please visit: <http://www.tms.org/meetings/annual-10/AM10home.aspx>

Please plan to attend the

Light Metals Division Luncheon

Wednesday, February 17, 2010 • noon to 2:15 p.m. • Washington State Convention Center, Room 6C luncheon presentation by

Wayne Hale, executive vice president and CEO, Century Aluminum

“Aluminum – Are We There Yet?”