

JOM Call for papers

An official publication of The Minerals, Metals & Materials Society

Publication Date: October 2023

Manuscript Deadline: April 1, 2023

Advanced Functional and Structural Thin Films and Coatings

This special topic celebrates the contributions of Professor Heinz Palkowski from Clausthal University of Technology, Germany, in the areas of materials science and engineering. Manuscripts are invited in the topical areas of coatings & engineered surfaces for reducing corrosion and wear as well as making use of lubricant-free (green) production and coatings for biomedical & healthcare, electronic and structural applications.

Original research papers should be 3,000-9,000 words with up to 12 figures maximum; review papers should be 6,000-11,000 words with up to 20 figures maximum.

Detailed author instructions are available at:
